Lanarkshire Society of Organists

June 2018 - Issue 2

Quick update towards the New session.....

The LSO committee have been very busy since the April meeting.

Due to the circumstances of the attempt to hold the AGM it is necessary to update our constitution.

This will take place at our October meeting – now our AGM.

We have also arranged the first half of the session from September to December – details on the back page.

This coming year we are guests of the Stirling Society in March. We are also planning a

Come and Sing “The Crucifixion” in the splendid setting of Cadzow Church Hamilton for April-19.

Ayr Organists Association .....

With the support of Tom White, our LSO president, Anne Green has been given the blessing of the Scottish Federation of Organists to set up an organist association in the Ayr area.

We hope to attend the inaugural meeting and lend support to Anne and her members during their first few years. We hope that you will support and encourage this new Scottish group.

ORGANIST JOKE..... How many organists does it take to change a light bulb?

Two. - One to change the bulb, and one to complain that the switch doesn't have any combination pistons.

YOUR ATTENDANCE IS REQUIRED

Due to insufficient members attending in April, as required in our current constitution, we were unable to hold our official AGM as planned.

The rescheduled AGM is to take place on Saturday 27th October 2018 at 2.30pm in the St. John's Church Centre, Duke Street, Hamilton.

To allow the formal business to take place we need a quorum which is currently set at 12 – not a great number, but a number we didn't reach in April.

Anne will send out the minutes & agenda soon.
